I, the undersigned, understand that Julia McLean works as a nutritional consultant and therefore will not diagnose or treat any known or unknown condition nor make statements that might tend to show intent to prescribe any medication for the treatment of a known or unknown condition.

I further understand that Julia McLean, as a nutritional consultant, recommends and talks about food, nutrition, nutritional supplements, vitamins, minerals and other nutrients, only as they may pertain to the whole body concept of metabolic processes as currently understood in the human body.

The client has a right to complete and current information concerning the practitioner's assessment and recommended service that is to be provided, including the expected duration of the service to be provided.

The client has a right to ask for a written copy of any information suggested by Julia McLean.

The client has a right to expect courteous treatment and to be free from verbal, physical, or sexual abuse by Julia McLean or anyone employed in her offices.

The client records and transactions with Julia McLean are confidential. Records will not be released unless the client provides written authorization, or otherwise provided by law.

The client has the right to be allowed access to his or her records and written information from records in accordance with Minnesota Statutes §§ 144.291 to 144.298.

The client has the right to stop seeing Julia McLean at any time and to seek assistance from any other practitioners that he or she may deem necessary. Information on other available services in the community is available in a variety of places, including online or in the phone book. The client has the right to coordinated transfer when there will be a change in the provider of services. The client may refuse services or treatment at any time, unless otherwise provided by law.

The client may assert the client's rights without retaliation.

My signature below indicates that I have read all of the above statements and that I accept and understand them, and that I agree to consult with Julia McLean on these grounds.
